Weekend Activities

On Luck began its weekend trial program in August 2024, aiming to offer a variety of engaging activities to foster a better lifestyle for consumers. The facility has been dedicated to providing a diverse range of entertainment options to support mental and physical well-being. Activities such as live performances, exercise sessions, sing-along events, and room visits have been incorporated to create a well-rounded experience that nurtures both social and emotional health. These efforts have received overwhelmingly positive feedback, encouraging the team to extend the program to full-day operations from March 2025. This arrangement reflects the growing demand for such activities, and the team is excited to provide more opportunities for consumers to stay active, social, and emotionally connected. The additional hours will allow participants to fully immerse themselves in the offerings, enhancing their overall well-being and sense of community.

New Activity Plan

The Leisure and Lifestyle activity schedule has been recently renewed and will now be updated every two weeks. Consumers are encouraged to refer to the latest version to stay informed about upcoming activities. This change comes in response to valuable feedback gathered during previous consumer and representative meetings, reflecting On Luck's commitment to continuously improving and adapting its offerings. On Luck remains dedicated to creating a better living space and lifestyle for the Chinese elder community, ensuring that all activities cater to their unique needs and preferences.
