

PRESS RELEASE

CCSSCI On Luck Chinese Nursing Home Oaks Day

Residents at CCSSCI On Luck Chinese Nursing Home were joined by Minister for Multicultural Affairs, The Hon. Robin Scott, Flora Yeh, Adviser of the Minister for Multicultural Affairs and CCSSCI Board Members to put their dressing up skills to good use for The Oaks Day.

Accompanied by the Learning and Lifestyle Coordinators from the Nursing home, the residents paraded the afternoon away with their colorful outfits and exquisite hats. The small group were delighted to be able to spend time talking to the visitors, and said it brought back some fantastic memories.

To add more excitement to the event, a competition was held where three residents were selected as best dressed by the panel judges consisting of CCSSCI Board Members. The winning residents were presented with gifts by The Hon. Robin Scott.

Visitors enjoyed a wide array of light refreshments, speeches and special tours of the beautiful home-like premises.

About CCSSCI On Luck Chinese Nursing Home

CCSSCI On Luck Chinese Nursing home is a not-for-profit residential aged care facility which is committed to providing high-quality, client-centred care to the Chinese seniors in the safety and comfort of home. We have 120 beds (60 places are for dementia-specific) and provide long-term accommodation and short-term respite care (subjected to availability of places) for Chinese elderly who are no longer able to manage living at home or have specialized care needs that requires professional care 24 hours from Registered Nurses or who require palliative care or dementia specific care in single rooms, shared rooms/couple rooms or dementia specific unit.

Please visit www.ccssci.org.au for more information about our programs and services.

*Top row (from left to right): Albert Hau, CCSSCI Board Member, Kim Au, CCSSCI Chief Executive Officer, Fred Chuah J.P., CCSSCI President, Jasper Kwok, CCSSCI Board Member, Rebecca Lai and Bird Cheung, On Luck Nursing Home Learning and Lifestyle Coordinators.
Front row: residents of CCSSCI On Luck Chinese Nursing Home.*